Complete one application for each transcript. Please read the instructions below before completing this form.

- Contact all colleges/universities you attended to request official transcripts be sent to the CCAC campus admissions office at the campus you will be attending. Official transcripts from the college/university must be forwarded directly to CCAC. If you attended multiple colleges/universities, official transcripts must be submitted from each college/university along with a completed application for credit transfer for each.
- Applications for credit transfer should be accompanied by course descriptions. It is the student's responsibility to secure course descriptions. If you do not have descriptions from the year taken, you can request a copy of these descriptions from the records office, the registrar or the library of that particular college/university.
- After the official transcript(s) is evaluated, you will be notified by mail of the courses that have been approved for advanced standing.
